DELBERT SMITH ARRESTED IN SALT LAKE CITY

IS CHARGED WITH MURDER OF MAIL CLERK STRONG, OF MINNEAPOLIS

ALSO FOR ROBBERY OF MAIL CAR —MOST OF LOOT IS RECOVERED

(United Press)

St. Paul, March 24—Delbert Smith told a woman a secret.

It ended in his arrest at Salt Lake City late yesterday charged with the murder of the mail clerk and robbery of the North Coast Limited mail car.

Authorities searched throughout the country for more than a month before they found him—then he confessed.

Smith robbed the Northern Pacific mail car near St. Cloud February 18 and escaped with nearly $60,000 in currency. When Z. E. Strong, of Minneapolis, mail clerk, resisted, Smith shot him three times and Strong died in a hospital.

The boy dropped from the train and went to White Bear Lake where he stayed the rest of the night with Mrs. Grace McDonald.

The following day Mrs. McDonald, her mother, Mrs. Alice Hendricks, and a relative, Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, went to the latter's flat where Smith had hidden about $40,000 of the money in a suit case.

Federal authorities arrested the three women and secured identity of the bandit. Then the search started.

They tracked him to Ashland, Wis., where they missed Smith by only a few hours. They recovered about $2,000 more of the loot, and yesterday arrested Mrs. Belle Vidmar, in Minneapolis. Smith had left the money with her in Ashland.

Late yesterday postoffice inspectors walked up to Smith in the Salt Lake City postoffice and "covered" him with their guns. "My God, I'll give up," he cried. The inspectors, E. L. Jackson and George Drake, of St. Paul, had tracked him by means of a letter he had written to St. Paul, asking for money. Smith was dead broke when arrested. He threatened to commit suicide.

Smith will be brought back here to face a charge of murder and another for robbery. He said he would wave extradition.

ANARCHIST BOMB KILLS TWENTY IN ITALIAN THEATER

TWENTY MORE MAY DIE FROM BLAST THAT SHATTERS MILAN PLAYHOUSE

(United Press)

Milan, Italy, March 24—A bomb, believed to have been hurled by an anarchist, exploded in the crowded Diana theater here last night, killing 20 of the audience and injuring scores of whom at least 20 are not expected to survive. The theatre was demolished by the force of the explosion, which came without warning, in the midst of the performance. The bomb is believed to have been hurled by someone in the back of the theatre.

Twenty bodies, many of them women and children, have been removed from the wreckage. It is believed that the death toll will be at least 40.

Police believe the outrage was the work of anarchists as a protest against Malatesta's imprisonment.

SENATE PASSES BILL DEFINING POLITIAL PARTIES

AIM IS TO MAKE A POLITICAL PARTY OF THE NONPARTISAN LEAGUE

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 24—The state senate today passed the Gjerset bill defining political parties, by a vote of 35 to 22.

It would make a political party of the nonpartisan league, American Legion, Federation of Labor, League of Women Voters, Federation of Farm Bureaus and similar organizations.

It was aimed at primarily to place the nonpartisan league in line as a political party.

Fiery arguments marked consideration of the bill.

Senator Johnson engaged in a bitter fight with Senator Arch Coleman, of Minneapolis, in which the former shouted, "Public opinion will clean up the republican party."

Senator Coleman yelled back, "Any man who follows Townley is no more a republican than a Baldwin apple."

Some of the republican leaders qualified Coleman's assertion with the statement that the bill is aimed at the nonpartisan league.

Other Proceedings in Senate

The senate passed a resolution memoralizing congress to legislate against speculation in farm products.

A bill was offered to the senate today which would permit county boards to issue bonds up to $25,000 to repair state roads damaged by floods.

Senator Widell offered a measure providing that county and municipalities shall publish in designated newspapers an itemized account of all expenditures for public improvement of $1,500 or more.

Nonpartisan league members offered an amendment to the new drainage bill providing that twenty-five farmers may form a drainage district and name a commission of three to govern its affairs.

Another measure in the senate provides that mutual insurance companies would be placed on the same basis as old line companies.

Eleven bills were introduced and thirty committee reports received.

AUTO TAX BILL PASSES HOUSE

BY UNANIMOUS VOTE—PROVIDES FOR RAISING $5,840,000 FOR GOOD ROADS

OTHER IMPORTANT BILLS ARE PASSED BY HOUSE AND SENATE

(United Press)

St. Paul, March 24—The house of the legislature today passed the Babcock tax bill by a vote of 110 to 0.

It provides for raising $5,840,000 this year through automobile taxes to be applied to contracts and maintenance of good roads under the Babcock amendment.

The house also passed the Child bill limiting wheelage taxes in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth to one-half of the Babcock automobile taxes. The vote was 104 to 2.

If the bill passes the senate in a similar form it passed the house, it will become effective at once. It will rearrange the whole wheelage tax schedule in St. Paul and Duluth.

Attempts to have the bill amended so it will not take effect until January failed.

Germany Is Warned She Must Pay Up

(United Press)

Paris, March 24—The allied nations are convinced German can pay her indebtedness bill, but has no intention of doing so, the allied reparation commission declared today in a note to the Berlin government.

The note declared Germany must pay twenty billion gold marks to the allies by May 1. The amount is about $4,500,000.

Germany was warned that refusal to pay the one billion marks demanded yesterday, constituted failure to meet the terms of the Versailles treaty.

ABROGATION OF NATL. AGREEMENT WOULD BE COSTLY

WOULD COST EMPLOYES $6,000,000 TO MAKE SEPARATE AGREEMENTS WITH EACH ROAD

(United Press)

Chicago, March 24—Machinery to draft individual agreements between railroads and employes would cost rail workers $6,000,000 and require the service of five thousand men.

Bert M. Jewell, president of the railroad employes' department of the American Federation of Labor, made this statement before the United States railroad labor board today as the opening shot of his plea against abrogation of the national agreement.

"If the national agreements were abrogated," said Jewell, "the matter of rules and working conditions would go back to the individual railroads and their employes. Enormous expenses would be required in forming and making operative the resultant agreement.

"The employes conference committee on each railroad would be composed of at least one man from each craft and each point in the railroad. For the 107 roads the services of 5,158 men would be required at a total daily expense of $65,760, or $5,918,442 for ninety days. This sum does not include additional expenses for stenographic work and printing."

BERGDOLL CASE PUT UP TO THE STATE DEPT.

SECRETARY OF WAR ASKS WHAT SHOULD BE DONE TO GET THE SLACKER

(United Press)

Washington, March 24—Secretary of War Weeks today sent to Secretary of State Hughes all papers in the case of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll with the request that Weeks be advised what further action to take.

Weeks asked that the state department consider the situation from an international standpoint and tell him what should be done to secure the surrender of Bergdoll and the release from the German prison of two Americans who recently attempted to capture the millionaire draft dodger.

The fact that this had been asked of Germany was learned and announced by the United Press exclusively yesterday.

SEED YOUR WHEAT IN APRIL.

J. C. Poole, a good farmer of Burley Co., N. Dak., says: "If one cannot seed wheat in April, it should not be sown. In one field of 105 acres, I sowed 24 acres about the 25th of April and in spite of the bad year, it yielded 10½ bushels No. 1 Dark Northern. On May 1st, I sowed 70 acres and it yielded 8 bushels No. 3 Dark Northern and a week later, the balance of the field was sowed and it yielded only 5 bushels of No. 5 Dark Northern.

"If all the fields had been prepared the fall before and seeded in April, it no doubt would have averaged 10 bushels of No. 1 Dark Northern."

PACKERS STRIKE IS AVERTED; WAGE QUESTION SETTLED

PRESIDENT HARDING EXPRESSES APPRECIATION OF THE HAPPY OUTCOME

(United Press)

Washington, March 24—Prospects of an immediate strike in the packing industry were averted through the mediation of Secretary of Labor Davis.

Compromises by the employes in accepting the recently announced wage reduction and by the five big packers in consenting to a six months' extension of the Alschuler arbitration arrangement, made possible the settlement after three days' of conferences in which representatives of packers and employes and Secretaries Davis, Hoover and Wallace participated.

The terms of the settlement as agreed to are in brief as follows: Reduction of wages amounting to 8 cents an hour for hourly workers and 12½ per cent for piece workers. Retention of the basic eight-hour day and overtime rates as provided in the wartime Alschuler rulings. Extension for six months, or until next Sept. 15, of the arrangement whereby Judge Samuel Alschuler shall decide all questions of hours, wages, conditions and adjustments not specifically provided for in the written agreement.

Pressure by the government was understood to have been largely responsible for the attaining of the agreement.

Statements issued by the participating parties after the signing of the agreement showed some divergence of opinion as to the real meaning of the settlement. The employes' delegates, Dennis Lane and Redmond S. Brennan, declared "the agreement is a truce to prepare for war."

Washington, March 24—President Harding today expressed his appreciation of the settlement of the packer wage controversy.

"This administration has nearest to its heart at all times any righteous hopefulness that it can give in avoiding suspension of industrial activities in this country," the president said, in congratulating Secretary of Labor Davis and representatives of the packers and employes who called at the White House today, to inform him that a strike had been averted and a settlement agreed to.

Phone Attorneys and Commission Confer on Rates

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 24—Counsel for telephone companies operating in the twin cities were in conference with the railroad and warehouse commission today in an attempt to reach an agreement on equitable rate increases for service.

If an agreement is reached, it is understood court action brought by the companies and the state will be dropped. The commission was insisting that there would be no discrimination because of schedule of increases granted temporarily by Judge Booth and filed with the commission and said a number would be filed until negotiations for a peaceful settlement was concluded.

POLICY TOWARDS RUSSIA WILL BE ANNOUNCED SOON

HARDING AND HOOVER SAID TO DIFFER AS TO TRADE RELATIONS

RAYMOND CLAPPER,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 24—President Harding and his advisors are preparing to announce their policy toward soviet Russia, it was learned today.

How far they will go in revising the stand of the Wilson administration had not been decided at this time, but a change in treatment of closer relationship is regarded as certain.

Recognition of the soviet government as a member of the world family of nations, however, seems a long ways off. No matter what steps are taken to encourage trade relations, it can be said that Harding is as flatly opposed to soviet principles of government as he ever was.

There were indications today that President Harding and Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, are not in complete accord on the Russian situation. Hoover opposes resumption of trade relations. Harding, as far as his views have been made public, favors bringing Russia back to production, believing this would be the one essential step in restoring world economic stability.

HUSBAND SHOOTS WIFE; KILLS SELF

ATTACKS WIFE AT HOME OF MOTHER, INFLICTING DANGEROUS WOUND

(United Press)

Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., March 24—Olive Buck, 24, is near death here today as a result of revolver wounds inflicted by her husband, Thomas Chester Buck, 42, who ended his own life after wounding his wife. Mrs. Buck is at the River View hospital with three bullets in her abdomen.

The Bucks, who formerly lived in Minneapolis, became estranged recently after circulation of a statement naming a Minneapolis man and Mrs. Buck, it was said here. Mrs. Buck left Minneapolis and came here to live with her parents. Buck is said to have attempted suicide taking carbolic acid. Failing in this he came here and attempted a reconciliation.

Armed with two bottles of poison, a razor and a gun, he made an attack on the home of his mother-in-law, who with another daughter escaped. Buck opened fire on the family, but Mrs. Buck was the only one injured. He placed the gun in his mouth and killed himself.

Brings Suit to Recover Money Spent for Wood Campaign

(By United Press)

Chicago, March 24—Wm. Cooper Proctor brought suit today to recover $110,000 he advanced for General Leonard Woods' futile campaign for the presidency. The suit was filed against A. A. Sprague, of Chicago, who was treasurer of the Wood campaign committee.

COMMUNISTS INSTITUTE REIGN OF TERROR IN GERMANY

TWENTY-FIVE DEATHS ARE REPORTED IN THEIR FIGHT WITH POLICE

BANKS WERE LOOTED, AND PROPERTY DESTROYED IN ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY

CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, March 24—German communists fought today for control of the government.

They instituted a reign of terror through mid-Germany, looting property. Destruction of property and 25 deaths showed the trail of the demonstration from the great shipyards of Hamburg to the mining region in the south and even to the outskirts of Berlin.

Police fought the reds off, but in some cases were overpowered by great crowds of red forces who entrenched at Eisleben. Hand grenades, rifles and machine guns were used in the fight.

Banks were robbed and public buildings were dynamited. Mines were rendered useless. They were flooded and railroads torn up. Miners who desired to work were held off by reds.

Public officials appealed to the Berlin government for military aid. The cabinet went into session with these appeals and the red report formed the center of disturbances. After a long study the cabinet declared local officials apparently had the situation in hand and that martial law would be withheld.

Efforts were made to connect the Russian soviet with the uprising. This was not shown although the demonstration was staged by sympathizers with the soviet cause.

With Hamburg as the peak of the triangle the region covered spread gradually past Berlin on one side and Halle on the south until it reached its greatest width in Saxony.

Martial Law Urged

Berlin, March 24—The German cabinet was urged today to declare martial law in mid-Germany after a long debate and conference over the reported riot. It was decided peace officers were able to control the outbreak.

Arrangements were made however for careful guarding of all railroads to prevent a repetition of the Frankfort-Berlin express derailment.

Allies Will Seize Frankfort

Berlin, March 24—Reports here today stated the allies contemplate the seizure of Frankfort as a reparation penalty against Germany.

Frankfort is an important industrial city in the dismantled Rhine district and is now on the edge of the Mayence bridgehead.

Eisleben Center of Disturbance

March 24—The Saxon town of Eisleben was made a concentrated point for communist rioters today.

Reports from officials are that the worst is expected. Thousands of reds from all parts of central Germany flocked to the city, most carrying arms.

Reports from Torgau, another manufacturing center in Saxony, said workers were seizing the factories there. Radical leaders are urging workers to follow the Italian example by driving out the employers and operating the plants for themselves. Street fighting was renewed today.

HOUSE PASSES TWO DIFFERENT GUARANTEE BILLS

ONE IS COMPULSORY, ONE IS OPTIONAL—SENATE CAN TAKE ITS PICK

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 24—The state senate today had a choice of two bank deposit guarantee bills from which to pick. One is a compulsory measure, the other is optional.

The house late yesterday, after an all day debate, passed a bill of each kind. Three optional bills and two compulsory measures were before the house. The optional bill passed was the committee bill which the house defeated yesterday morning by a vote of 65 to 57. Late in the afternoon the house reconsidered it and passed it 66 to 54.

The compulsory participation, copied from a South Dakota law, passed 68 to 55 after a bitter fight.

Woman in Case of Murdered Rochester Man

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 24—E. B. Lewis, of Dakota county, today was closely guarding letters taken from the body of Wm. Conoma which he said would help solve the mystery surrounding the murder of the wealthy billiardist. Some of the letters police believe, will convince that "there is a woman in the case."

Conoma came here almost weekly to visit her, they said. Her name was not disclosed. Detectives asserted Conoma was on the way to see her when he was overtaken on the Jefferson highway nine miles south of here Monday night and killed by a bullet from a 38-calibre revolver. The "woman" is described as about 28 years old, small and pretty.

Arrest of Murderer Expected

Police here late today announced arrests would be made in connection with the murder of Wm. Conoma, within a few hours. A Minneapolis man is sought.

A coroner's jury in St. Paul was dismissed for lack of evidence. Another inquest will be called later.

EMINENT CATHOLIC PRELATE DIED TODAY

PASSED AWAY AT 11:35 A. M. AT THE ADVANCED AGE OF EIGHTY-SIX

Baltimore, Md., March 24—James Cardinal Gibbons died here today at the age of 86.

The aged prelate yielded to illness which had confined him to bed the greater part of the winter.

After fighting off one attack the cardinal was so weak that he could not withstand the second.

Cardinal Gibbons died at 11:35 A. M. Monsignor John Bonzano, apostolic delegate to the United States; Bishop Owen B. Corrigan of Baltimore and a number of other clergymen, were at the cardinal's home when he died. Cardinal Gibbons was born in Baltimore July 30, 1834.

It Is Woman, Lovely Woman.

One of the shocks that come to men when they are past twenty-one is the realization that women's greatest interest is woman. No matter how white the spats nor how shiny the topper a man may take to the races, do they attract the feminine eye? The answer is in the negative. The feminine eye is searching for more important things. It is noting frocks and the wearing thereof. If an enterprising publisher started a men's magazine, would he publish portraits of men? He might intersperse a few horses on his pages—but the remaining space would have to be given to women. But does a woman's magazine return the compliment? Obviously not.—London Daily Express.

Work.

If the busy rich people watched and rebuked the idle rich people, all would be right among them; and if the busy poor people watched and rebuked the idle poor people, all would be right among them. But each looks for the fault of the other. A hard working man of property is particularly offended by an idle beggar; and an orderly but poor workman is naturally intolerant of the licentious luxury of the rich. And what is severe judgment in the minds of the just men of either class becomes fierce enmity in the unjust—but among the unjust only. None but the dissolute among the poor look upon the rich as their natural enemies or desire to pillage their houses and divide their property. None but the dissolute among the rich speak in opprobrious terms of the vices and follies of the poor.—John Ruskin.

"HE IS THE ONE BOCHE WE WANT"

AMERICAN LEGION WANTS BERGDOLL BROUGHT BACK TO THIS COUNTRY.

SEDITION IS STILL AT WORK

Men Who Fought for Flag on the Battlefield Are Being Compelled to Continue to Fight for It in the Fields of the Home Land.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Col. F. W. Galbraith, commander of the American Legion, has been spending considerable time in Washington recently. He has been in conference with President Harding and some of the leaders of congress concerning legislation which the service men would like to have enacted at the extra session.

It seems to be the belief of the Legion leader that at the next session provision will be made for the grouping of all government soldier relief agencies into one bureau, and for a continuous hospital program, especially for tuberculous and neuro-psychiatric patients.

"He is the one Boche we want."

This is what the Legion's commander has said in reference to Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, Philadelphia draft evader, rich and influential, who is now in a country which he loves better apparently than the land of his birth. It is the belief in Washington that the new administration will make an effort to lay hands on Bergdoll and bring him back to this country. The Legion says that it wants this man—and if the government wants him it will get him.

Nearest Their Hearts.

Of course the proper care of the sick and wounded soldiers is the thing nearest the hearts of the service men. Already the country knows that the sum of $6,000,000 instantly is available for rehospitalization purposes. The sole fear now is apparently that government red tape, and the delays which have become historic in American administration, may prevent quick relief for the sufferers, but all that men can do to spur the government to its instant duty is to be done.

The American Legion has not forgotten the recent meeting at Madison Square Garden, New York city, where pro-Germans were allowed to preach doctrines that were more than semi-seditious. Neither has the Legion forgotten the attempt of pro-Germans to break up another meeting in New York city which was called for the purpose of disciplining a recreant Legion member. If any one believes that the American Legion is going to let such matters as these drop another thought should be coming to him quickly.

Recently there was held in Madison Square Garden, New York city, under the auspices of the American Legion "An All-American Meeting for God and Country."

It was not necessary at that meeting to have 1,500 policemen inside the hall to maintain order. When the lovers of Germany held their meeting they succeeded in securing the services of 2,000 policemen who they thought might be ready to club any American Legion man who should show any too marked an affection for the American flag.

A Patriotic Document.

"An All American Meeting for God and Country will be held in Madison Square Garden, Friday, March 18.

"For two years an insidious propaganda has been carried on throughout the nation. Forces identified with movements and causes unworthy of America again appear to break the friendships born of the common struggle—human liberty.

"Propaganda in many forms, some of it of foreign origin and in foreign interests, is being disseminated, entering the school, the home and the church.

"Appeals for causes which in themselves are worthy, namely: humanity, decency and charity, are being made the vehicle for the spread of hate, furnishing germs for future wars.

"Meetings which are disgraceful examples of propaganda are being held throughout the nation for the purpose not only of disuniting the American people but also of alienating us from those peoples who gave with us their life's blood on a common battlefield.

"There comes a time in the history of all peoples when they must prepare themselves to meet a common foe. Such a time has come to the American people. Our honor, our ideals and our future are imperiled. Shall they remain undefended? The noble dead and those who now lie in hospitals, living monuments of willing sacrifice, who gave their bodies for their heart's desire, look to us to carry on—for God and Country."

For the first time in the history of the American nation men who fought for the flag on the battlefield are being compelled to continue to fight for it in the fields of the home land. The enemy calls itself American, but it is American to a far less degree than the Germans who fought against the American flag in the Argonne, in the St. Mihiel salient and along the banks of the Meuse and the Marne.

ERADICATE THE BARBERRY.

"In my opinion, the only way to actually get rid of the rust menace is to completely eradicate the barberry throughout the states of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota and further South as well," says Mr. W. R. Porter, agent in marketing, Agricultural college, N. Dak.

"My experience is that there are very few farmers in the rust sections who get a very good crop of wheat. An occasional field that is planted very early will sometimes give a reasonable yield when most of the wheat around it is destroyed by rust.

"I do not know a single farmer in the state of North Dakota that can consistently grow wheat that escapes rust. Some of the durums are called rust resistant to the rust that we now have, but it is a question whether they will remain rust resistant if the barberry is allowed to spread as it is now doing.

Savages Give to Missions.

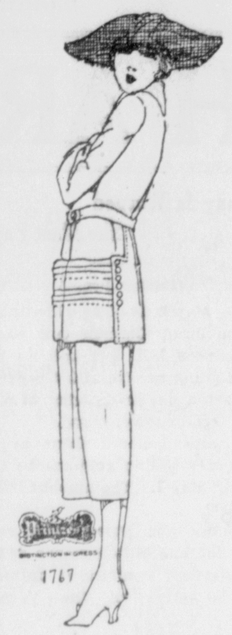

Two hundred boys from the Nega Hill tribes of Assam went to the war in France, and all were baptized into the Christian church while in the army. Upon returning home every one donated a month's pay to mission work as a thank offering for their preservation.

Hypocrite Betrays Himself.

Usually it is easy enough to feel whether there is a sound human heat behind the written or the spoken word. Fine phrases and exalted sentiments seldom mask the hollowness of the hypocrite.—Victor Hugo.

Altogether a Busy Family.

"What is the Higgins' family doing now?" asked Mrs. Jones, of her neighbor. "The wife is writing poems that nobody will read, the daughter is painting pictures that nobody will buy, the son is writing plays that nobody will put on the stage, and the husband is writing checks that nobody will cash," was the startling reply.

A PAST RECORD OF GOOD RESULTS

No discovery, none excepted, is doing more to bring about a complete revolution in the healing arts than CHIROPRACTIC. This work now covers the continent. It is not an experiment, but a great health institution which daily administers to the relief of hundreds of thousands of sick and afflicted men, women and children.

DISEASE

Disease is defined as anything less than perfect health. The names which make up the catalogue of different diseases have little or no value with reference to recovering health, for all disease are merely effects of physical causes, and when those causes are removed the effects will disappear.

CHIROPRACTIC EFFECTIVE

We have successfully overcome the underlying causes of many cases of stomach trouble, bowel, liver and kidney disorders, rheumatism, neuritis, various headaches, affections of nose, throat, lungs, and other organs both acute and chronic type.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF MR. AND MRS. GEO. YOUNG

Celebrated at Their Farm Home at Crow Wing on Evening of March 22, 1921

MANY RELATIVES WERE THERE

At 6:30 a Sumptuous Wedding Dinner was Served—Received Appropriate Remembrances

On March 22, 1871, at Mazeppa, Minn. occured the marriage of Geo. W. Young, and Miss Clara Youngs, and fifty years later March 22, 1921, the anniversary of the event was celebrated at their farm home at Crow Wing. The house was prettily decorated with yellow jonquils and the dining table held a huge bouquet of American beauty roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Young are the parents of thirteen children and have eleven grandchildren. One daughter Maude died in childhood. Those present to enjoy the happy occasion with them were their sons, Elvin E. Young and wife and daughter Mina, Freeman O. and his wife, the daughters Lottie and Celesta, and their old friends Mrs. Belle Porter and Miss Irwin of Crow Wing, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Phelps and daughter Marian, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Everest, son Dudley and daughter Ruth and Roy Nordstrom of Brainerd. The time was pleasantly spent in conversation and music, and at 6:30 o'clock a sumptuous wedding dinne was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were the recipients of many useful and pretty gifts, appropriate to the occasion.

The chidren who could not be present were, Mrs. H. L. Newell of Tacoma, Wash., Truman Young of Minneapolis, Mrs. D. P. Fowler and Mrs. C. E. Shanley of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. J. W. Pinkney of San Diego, Cal., Mrs. G. W. Williams of Elmo, Wash., Miss Fanny Young of Bismarck, N. D. and Lige R. Young of Dillon, Mont. The west seems to have had an attraction for the younger generation, but the parents must ahve a strong affection for Crow Wing, for out of the fifty years of their married life thirty-five years have been spent at that place. So long a residence there has made them many friends, who felt they must help celebrate the occasion too and a surprise was planned. About eight o'clock some forty of their neighbors arrived to congratulate them on the happy anniversary, bringing with them appropriate remembrances and a fine lunch.

A most enjoyable evening was spent and at midnight all departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Young many more happy years of life together.

IN SPRING BLOUSE

Gay Colorings Promise to Feature Coming Season.

Tomato Red Is Given as One of the Bright Particular Spots in the Offering.

Blouses in suit colorings, having been given the center of the stage for the winter season, are even now being replaced by more brilliant ones for spring, according to a fashion authority. Tomato red is given as one of the bright particular spots in the offering. Red having been neglected for years, has quite suddenly become a most important note. It is early to talk of organdies and cotton fabrics, but in passing it is a temptation to say that tomato and flame are colors often repeated in these materials.

A blouse of two or more fabrics offers fascinating possibilities for the combination of color, and black and white is always stunning. In one blouse black expresses itself in satin, softened with sleeves and a gilet or yoke of white georgette banded with black. Such a blouse makes of a seperate satin skirt a modish costume and in this instance a white faced satin hat completes the picture.

Since crepe dresses are quite the newest note it is natural that blousemakers should turn their attention to this fabric as well. It is not to be supposed that lingerie blouses and lingerie frocks will be neglected, but there is every justification for the prophecy that fabrics of the crepe order will be made into utility dresses, and wnists range in color from navy, black and brown to the lightest pastel shades and white. Georgette, always important from the blouse viewpoint, is combined with crepe for many of these models. In fact, present indications point to a season of interesting and out-of-the-usual combinations of materials, often of the same color.

THE CHIC CHEMISE BLOUSE

The chemise blouse is an assured fact for semi-formal wear. This attractive model is of tangerine colored heavy crepe de chine beaded in white.

CLOTHING FOR STOUT WOMEN

Coat Dress and Redingote, Surplice Sweaters and the Tailored Suit Among Favorites.

The coat dress and the redingote are both on the side of the stout woman. Long lines again, with no accenting of the normal waistline, can be had in both these styles, which are as good in silk as they are in tricotine or serge. When it comes to separate skirts the scale tips in favor of Mrs. Plump and Forty, for stripes bid fair to be more popular than plaids. All sorts of straight plaitings are used for these skirts, side and kilt, particularly, with large embroidered arrows at the hips to keep those plaits from spreading and flaring where they should not.

Surplice sweaters are the stout woman's own, but a new one that is knit hip length with a collar that might be called a Tuxedo scarf and crosses in the front to tie in the back, is her especial property.

When it comes to the tailored suit, again the stout woman has things all her own way, especially if she has a good tailor. Those lovely new tweeds and homespuns cut in the strictest unbelted straight lines with just the suggestion of a semifit are going to please her a lot. In serge and tricot she can find belted styles that are so seamed in the back as to suggest slimness, the very narrow belt tying in front, so that it can drop to a low waistline. A very new suit designed for the stout woman is of navy tricotine, with slightly fitted unbelted back and a slightly flaring peplum set on at a low waistline that dips in the front. Cut in one with the peplum is a front panel which is closely embroidered with pigtail braid. The Tuxedo collar opens rather low.

THE CHIC FROCK OF FOULARD

Material Mostly Seen in Combination With Other Fabrics—Red Is Favored Color.

Foulard always turns up about this time of year, and this season is no exception. Now, however, the whole frock of foulard is not so apt to be seen among the smartest offerings as foulard in combination, lining a wrap, making the top of a three-piece suit, and so on. Red figures on navy grounds are met with; also maroon on dark cream, the latter in combination with cream habutai. Brown foulards are very stunning, especially when patterned with those sprawly Japanesque designs which the newest patterns feature.

Among sport materials stripes easily take the lead. Sometimes the material is striped by stitching. A new plaid for skirt or sport cape shows a very fine black and white check plaided by a half-inch stripe of color. Among sport fabrics flannel is having a tremendous vogue, not only in the white but in the brilliant red. The smartest kind of sport togs are made of flannel and velveteen in combination. Flannels striped in color are used for some stunning little one-piece sport dresses.

Chiffon is being much exploited, also chiffon cloth for frocks of the dressier type. Lace, natural and dyed, is a popular choice for spring and summer evening gowns. Brussels net and colored point d'esprit are also good alone or combined with lace.

Among some of the novelties are "paper muslin," a new glazed fabric for summer frocks, red cashmere for sport clothes and English thread lace run with silver strands for trimming the elaborate afternoon dress of taffeta or faille.

DAINTY TRIFLES IN HOSIERY

Stockings in White or Light Shades Afford Pleasing Possibilities for Fancy Work.

Silk stockings in white or light tints have surprising possibilities for fancy work trifles. The weave very closely resembles silk jersey and looks very pretty embroidered in light colors in floral designs such as rosebuds. Ideas for trimming it with baby ribbon embroidery can be gained from observing the smart white silk jersey petticoats and their trimmings in lingerie shops. A needle book trimmed with either silk or ribbon in a yellow daisy pattern can be very dainty. A pin cushion top made from blue or pink silk stocking may be embroidered with light colors and silver or gold threads also.

What is Dis-ease?

Dis-ease is lack or excess of function in any part of the body. All function is controlled by mental impulses from the brain, therefore the cause of dis-ease must be an interference with the line of communication between the brain and the dis-eased part. It necessarily follows that the only permanent way to do away with the dis-ease is to adjust its cause and thus restore free communication. Chiropractors do this by adjusting the displacement that causes the obstruction. Ninety-five per cent of the obstructions are at the Spine.

SOMEBODY'S DAUGHTER

(A True Story)

One morning several months ago, a mere slip of a girl appeared at the door of a Salvation Army Rescue and Maternity Home, and after some evident hesitation rang for admittance.

The matron in charge, schooled through years of experience in the suffering and sorrows of young womanhood, answered the summons, and recognizing the situation, took the young girl into the home and the affection of her big mother heart.

There was nothing strikingly unusual in this case. The girl was just one of the hundreds who have sought shelter there under similar conditions during the 22 years that the home has been a refuge for girls in distress.

In this case the girl's betrayal followed an acquaintance with a young mechanic. Then came the ominous realization of the penalty that she was about to pay for her indiscretion.

Inexperienced in the way of the world and unprepared through lack of proper home training, this girl knew of no place to turn for refuge in her shame. Then the Salvation Army Rescue and Maternity Home came to her attention and to it she directed her troubled footsteps.

Under the motherly care of the matron and her assistants this prospective child-mother found the somber clouds of her sorrow dissipating and the sunshine of love and happiness of the home being reflected in her own heart.

She entered into the spirit of the home with alacrity and was soon looking forward to the great event of her life with the wholesome natural attitude that is conducive of the most good for the mother and her child. She undertook with joy the mastering of the duties of motherhood and in spare moments devoted herself ,along with other girls in the home, to furthering her neglected school studies and in other ways fitting herself to support herself and child.

Then the great day arrived and she found that instead of one child there were four—four little girls, three of whom survived the birth.

While the mother is learning the care of her triple burden The Salvation Army's Free Legal Bureau is endeavoring to locate the father and see that he shares in the responsibility and care of the children.

If no other provision is made for the mother, The Salvation Army will find a place where it will be possible for her to keep the children with her. The Salvation Army never separates the mother from her babe.

IMMIGRANTS AND IMMIGRATION.

A committee of immigrant citizens representing a group of foreign language newspapers wrote to Senator Pomerene, explaining that they represented half the population of the metropolis of the state, and asking him to use his influence against the proposed restriction of immigration. The senator's reply is worth quoting, as an answer to all such appeals. He said:

"In your city, as well as in every industrial center in the state, and in the country, thousands and thousands of men and women, native, naturalized and alien sojourners here, are out of employment, for how long a time no one can tell.

"I regret conditions in the old world and sympathize with people in distress everywhere; but as a senator of the United States my conception of duty requires me to look after the unemployed here rather than to add to their number by leaving the gates at the ports of entry open, and as your association represents one-half of the people of a great city it must include a very large part of the unemployed.

'Certainly under these circumstances, if it is your desire to aid them, and I know it must be, your views on the subject of further restriction of immigration cannot in fact differ radically from my own.

"That sound policy from the standpoint of America requires further limitation than at present I have no doubt."

That seems to leave little to be said.

It is natural for foreign-born residents to want to bring their relatives to this country, and some concessions must doubtless be made to that desire. But limits must be drawn, and the volume of immigration must be kept down, for the welfare of these foreign-born people themselves as much as that of native citizens. Their own feeling about the matter cannot be fully trusted, and their mistaken protests will have to be disregarded, if America is to be kept a land of opportunity.

BELONGED TO MEDICI FAMILY

Well-Known Pawnbrokers' Sign Once the Heraldic Device of House Famous in History.

During the Middle ages the Lombards made a practice of lending money at interest. The Medici family was the first to turn the practice into a profession.

Many years before, Averardo de Medici, a commander who served with distinction under Charlemagne the Great, killed the giant Mugello, whose club had three iron balls attached to it in order that it might be a more effective weapon. For this reason the family of the Medici adopted the three balls, gilded, as the heraldic device on their coat-of-arms, and the appearance of this insignia soon came to be recognized as a symbol for money-lending.

Incidentally, the name of the Medici family has been further perpetuated through the word "medicine" a tribute to the skill of the members of this house in the art of healing.

Proof of War's Havoc.

In spite of the fact that the seagoing tonnage of the United States is today nearly 10,400,000 tons greater than in 1914, an advance of more than 500 per cent, and in spite of the intensive steamship production in Great Britain and the United States for themselves and other countries, the world's steel steam tonnage is now less by 3,500,000 tons gross than it would have been if the war had not interfered with the normal rate of expansion.

AMUSEMENTS

Norma Talmadge in "Panthea"

One of the strongest screen productions seen in Brainerd this season is "Panthea," adapted from the play by Monckton Hoffe, and which with Norma Talmadge in the title role, is now being shown at the Lyceum theatre last time tonight.

"Panthea" as a photoplay was originally offered to the public about two years ago and immediately created a furore in screen circles. After a considerably longer run than is usually accorded a photoplay, "Panthea," in accordance with usual photoplay custom, was withdrawn from the market, during this time it never was presented to the Brainerd public until now. It recently played to packed houses in the Twin Cities. Such, however, was the demand for the picture, that the Selznick studios took the negative from the vaults and after re-titling and re-editing the picture in acordance with present day ideas, revived it.

"Panthea," in addition to providing Norma Talmadge with the best vehicle she has ever had, excels in rapidity of action, building up its climaxes in a fashion that is certain to hold the most hardened picture patron. Striking scenes depicting the persecution of Nihilists by Russian police and the destruction of a ship at sea by fire lend additional force to the production.

"What Happened to Rosa"

"Clothes do not make the man," but they do mean much—especially when a girl is pretty and works in a department store and has no beau.

What clothes did for this particular young lady is delightfully told in the new Goldwyn picture, "What Happened to Rosa," which comes to the New Park theatre today, and which has as its star that delightful Mabel Normand, queen of comediennes.

All the girls tell her to "dress up," but she cannot see it until a handsome young doctor comes in one day and her heart goes wabbling across the aisle—then she sees where she has been losing, so she starts to trim up, and in the end she captures this idolized man, and is then made happy.

Mabel Normand is at her best—better than that, in this delightful little story of human life.

CHAMBER VOTER TO CHANGE ITS NAME

Farmers and Union Men Have Gained Wrong Ideas Regarding Province of Chamber Commerce

PRIZE FOR THE BEST NAME

Chamber of Commerce Manufacturing Committee to Work for New Industries in City

One of the most important things taken up at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday evening was the necessity of changing its name to something donating its interest in community work and welfare. The recent marketing problems have engrossed the attention of farmers and many imagine the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce was in the business of marketing, of buying and selling wheat like the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce. Union men, on the other hand, imagine the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce was linked up with the National Chamber of Commerce in labor disputes. There has been a lot of misinformation circulated regarding the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce because of its name and at the meeting it was thought advisable to follow Dr. J. A. Thabes original suggestion and change the name. A unanimous vote attested the feeling of the members regarding the proposition.

Prize for Best Name

A $25 prize is to be offered the person or organization submitting a suitable new name for the Chamber and the contest is to be carried out according to conditions to be announced by the publicity committee. The whole county is eligible to compete for the prize and the entries are expected to include farmers clubs church societies, schools, unions, etc.

A. L. Hoffman enumerated many names of organizations of the province of the olcal Chamber which do not use the term "Chamber of Commerce". By having everybody interested in selecting a name it is hoped to have people understand the mission and aims of the local Chamber.

Endorse Salvation Army

Adjutant Kline of the Salvation Army addressed the gathering and stated the aims of the association, the need of local funds, and the campaign for money to be carried on in this city commencing March 31 and asked the endorsement of the Chamber which was given unanimously. Under the old system of solicitation for funds it took from 50 to 75 per cent of the time of trained workers who could have been otherwise employed in necessary community work. In 1919 there had been carried on a campaign for funds in Crow Wing county, and $1800 was raised on the range and $800 in Brainerd. Of this amount $1600 had been spent in alleviating suffering and $1,000 went into a building fund.

The local corps had borrowed $400 to carry on its work at present. Adjutant Kline mentioned the endorsement given the drive by the Trades & Labor Assembly. In preparation for the drive, the city has been divided into sections for solicitations and by a hearty response Brainerd will be able to go over the top.

Land Clearing

E. G. Roth, county agricultural agent, spoke on land clearing. Speakers have been secured for a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce to which farmers, and all others interested in the upbuilding of the community will be cordially welcomed. Bemidji recently quickly staged a comprehensive land clearing demonstration and the movement is in full swing in that section of Beltrami county to bring wild lands into cultivation.

Decoration Day

Alderman Andrew Anderson suggested the Chamber of Commerce back the American Legion and the World War Veterans in their Memorial day exercises. Children should be taught the songs to sing and the Brainerd Municipal band would do its part in the day's program.

Persident D. D. Schrader, who presided at the Chamber meeting, will appoint a committee of five to act for the Chamber.

Cattle Show in Brainerd

F. H. Gruenhagen broached the idea of a cattle show in Brainerd and cited what Waterloo, Iowa, has done in this regard. After three years of successful shows state aid can be secured. It would bring show cattle from Minnesota and states near by, attract many farmers to Brainerd and wind up with a big cattle sale bringing buyers from distant points.

D. D. Schrader, who formerly lived in Waterloo, Iowa, spoke on the success attained by the cattle show started there. He heartily favored the idea.

R. R. Wise, who has a large stock farm near Brainerd, was also in favor of the plan. On motion carried Mr. Gruenhagen was named chairman of a committee and he is to name his nine associate committee men and they are to see what Brainerd can do in regard to starting and maintaining a cattle show annually.

More Industries

John A. Hoffbauer brought up the need of small industries in Brainerd employing from five to ten men and suggested the cooperation of the manufacturing committee with T. H. Croswell of the Cuyuna Range Power Co. in getting such industries to establish themselves in Brainerd. The recent power controversy in St. Cloud brought power rates to the attention of people in Central Minnesota and the outside world.

Brainerd has a good power rate for small manufacturers. More industries means the use of more electric power, and their location in Brainerd would mean a corresponding increase in the prosperity of the city at large. Mr. Croswell had been spoken to before and expressed himself as willing to cooperate with the committee. He mentioned Deerwood which lately has added a battery and box factory in which Minneapolis and other people were interested.

Sale of Poppies

A communication was read regarding the sale of poppies and the Chamber will cooperate with the Brainerd Musical club and Legion men in this regard.

Court House Visit

R. R. Gould spoke of the courtesies extended the Chamber of Commerce "Seeing Brainerd First Tour" which on Wednesday afternoon was guided through the court house by the architect William T. Harris of Alden & Harris. Although a St. Paul man Mr. Harris has a long time been a member of the Chamber.

Every room of court house from third floor to basement was shown the Chamber of Commerce men and friends and at the conclusion a luncheon was served in the basement.

The Chamber, on motion of Mr. Gould, expressed its thanks to Alden & Harris, architects; Twin City Tile & Marble Co.; Brainerd Electric Co., Gruenhagen Co. and Elliott & Co. general contractors for the courtesies shown them.

New Member

Rev. S. M. Kelley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was elected a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

10,000 Lakes Association

A letter was read from the "10,000 Lakes Association" asking cooperation. Brainerd is vitally interested in this organization and some of its citizens are officers of the same. It is doing its share to bringing tourists into Minnesota.

Chamber Bulletin

Secretary Randall called attention to the first number of "The Hub", bulletin of the Chamber of Commerce, a four page publication to be circulated in Brainerd and county territory. As stated, "it will be the aim of this little paper to carry to the world outside of Brainerd, some news of what her Chamber of Commerce is doing and trying to do; to carry messages from one part of the county of Crow Wing to other parts of the county of what is being done in an agricultural, labor and commercial way".

The bulletin was financed at no cost to the Chamber, the advertisements solicited by the secretary paying printing and other expenses. The secretary was commended for his work with the bulletin and also for visiting around among farmers, schools, clubs, etc., in order to explain Chamber of Commerce activities and community help, coupled with community singing.

"A man may be down, but he's never out."

That might mean any one of us.

The World by Color.

If we speak by continents, the really white world consists of Europe, North America to the Rio Grande, the southern portion of South America, the Siberian part of Asia, and Australasia, the last two, of course, being very thinly inhabited. On the other hand, the world of color consists of the bulk of Asia, virtually the whole of Africa, and most of Central and South America. The great bulk of the white race is, of course, concentrated in the European continent. Four-fifths of the entire white race lives on less than one-fifth of the white world's area. Of the colored races the yellow are naturally the most numerous, living in eastern Asia, and numbering over 500,000,000. The browns number more than 450,000,000 while the blacks, whose center is Africa, south of the Sahara desert, total about 150,000,000. The reds are, of course, of less consequence, being few in number.

Stunt to Cure Hiccoughs.

A Spanish physician claims to have been very successful in curing stubborn cases of hiccoughs by this treatment: The patient lies down and draws up his knees until his thighs are pressed tightly to his abdomen, the lower part of the legs being pressed against the thighs by bending the knees. The position is held for several minutes. The effect of this is to press the abdominal organs up against the diaphragm and to sustain the pressure until the diaphragm ceases its spasmodic contraction.

Forecast for Monday's Child.

People born on Monday (moon's day) need never fear poverty nor will they gain great wealth. They will travel much, marry happily, be skilled in medicine, surgery, geography and mathematics; will be fortunate as navigators, agriculturists, or printers, and may become workers in precious metals, ambassadors, or church dignitaries. They will be subject to catarrh, toothache, and colic, and they will have a blemish in their eyes. They will love life and will live to be over seventy.

Graduation at Agricultural School

Crookston, Minn., March 24—Fifty-three seniors were to receive diplomas at the northwest school of agriculture here today.

It was the thirteenth graduating class. Superintendent Selvig was to present diplomas. President Brown of the St. Cloud Normal was to deliver the address.

Rainmaker in Alberta

Medicine Hat, Alta., March 24—The coming of "Rainmaker" Hatfield has aroused intense interest among farmers of Alberta and Manitoba.

He is under contract to set up equipment which is to produce rain, totalling four or more inches during the period between May 1 and August 1 within a hundred mile radius of Medicine Hat. The rainmaking apparatus is to be set up at Chappice lake, 20 miles from here.

The operations are expected to increase precipitation 100 per cent over and above the natural average rainfall.

Hatfield will take credit for only half of the total precipitation during that period and will receive compensation at the rate of $4,000 per inch or fraction thereof up to four inches, the maximum consideration being $8,000 for a four inch rainfall.

Hatfield erects standards holding cans of certain kinds of salts and induces vapogization and precipitation.

Less Wheat Acreage in N. D.

Bismarck, N. D., March 24—Less wheat acreage and more diversification will result from present financial conditions in the state in the belief of Commissioner Hagan. Farmers cannot afford, and cannot borrow, to plant extensively, he said. Those who have the money will not risk last year's losses again.

He believed the acreage in the state would be reduced 1,600,000 acres and that dairying and poultry raising of producers of ready money will receive more attention.

Double Payment.

"You've been eating a lot of candy, haven't you?"

"Yes, doctor."

"And now you're paying for it."

"Well, doctor, remember I paid for it when I bought it, so please don't make the second payment too high."—Boston Transcript.

Stroll With Morgan Gave Credit.

An acquaintance once approached the first J. P. Morgan and asked for a loan of $10,000. Morgan knew the man was responsible, but for private reasons did not want to make the loan himself. He did, however, say he would secure the money for him, relates Collier's. Putting on his hat and coat, he asked the man to go with him. They started at Broad and Wall streets, walked through Wall to Broadway, and back to Broad. Morgan did not stop anywhere, nor ask anyone to lend his companion $10,000. At the door of his office Morgan shook hands with the man and bade him good day. "But," objected the applicant, "you didn't get me the $10,000." "Oh, yes, I did," said Morgan. "Anybody down there," waving toward Wall street, "will let you have it now."

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can beathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic healing cream in your noisrils. It penetrates through every passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

Caesar's Words.

Julius Caesar is credited with the saying, which means, "I came, I saw I conquered," in connection with his victories in Pontus, a kingdom of Asia Minor, B. C. 47. The historian Suetonius states that the words were displayed before Caesar's title in his public triumph, to indicate the rapidity with which the campaign was concluded. Plutarch, in his life of Caesar, says the latter, in the account he gave one of his Roman friends of his victory over Pharnaces at Zela in Pontus, used the three words as a concise summary of the expedition.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE MARCH 31

Planned to Raise $2500 in Brainerd to Carry on Work, City Divided Into Districts

ENDORSEMENTS ARE RECEIVED

Trades & Labor Council Unanimously Endorses Movement, Chamber of Commerce Too

At the request of Adj. H. H. Kline of the Salvation Army, on behalf of the local corps, the Trades and Labor Council of this city unanimously endorsed the contemplated drive of the Salvation Army, which is to be put on in Brainerd, March 31st.

The adjutant is not only very much elated over the endorsement, but also at receiving the hearty endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Wednesday night.

A plan has been formulated for the solicitation of funds, commencing on the opening date of the drive. The city has been divided into small districts, committees appointed with interested men at the head to cover each district. Brainerd will go over the top.

The Salvation Army drive plans to raise $2,500 in Brainerd.

The army does a world of good, it salvages humanity and restores character. It makes earners of wasters, restores men to their families, helps those who believe themselves down and out to get back on their feet.

Every service man knows what the Salvation Army did in France and elsewhere in war time. It does every bit as much good in peace times.

CROSBY

Crosby, Minn., March 21—The Crosby Minstrels' club has secured an attraction for Crosby, being the Carlton College Glee club which will give a concert at the armory on March 29th. Last spring the glee club made a tour of larger towns in the southern part of the state, appearing at Winona, Mankato, New Ulm, Austin and Rochester. They were accorded an enthusiastic welcome. This year their itinerary embraces Crosby, Little Falls, Park Rapids, Coleraine, Virginia, Eveleth, Ely, Duluth, Milaca St. Paul, Minneapolis, etc. All selections sung have been memorized. The club is in charge of Director Edmund Serene Ender a member of the faculty of the Carlton Conservatory of Music. Robert Calderwood accompanies the club as a reader.

The Clarence A. Nelson post of the American Legion will give another of its popular dances in the Crosby armory on Easter Monday, March 28.

Supt. H. R. Edwards gave an interesting talk to the junior and senior high schools on the inauguration of the president, interesting places in Washington, Atlantic City and the National Educational meeting recently held there.

The Rojoy club will give a dance in the Crosby armory on Saturday night, April 9th.

An old time quilting bee was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Layton.

On Sunday evening an Easter cantata will be given by the Swedish Lutheran Sunday school pupils and a mixed quartet.

Charles Carlson was elected dictator of the Moose lodge.

The upper part of the Milberry house on North Shore Acres was badly damaged by fire.

The three act farce comedy "All a Mistake" was played at the armory for the benefit of St. Joseph's church. It improved a great success.

The Misses Celia Hanson and Elizabeth McKenzie were Brainerd visitors.

Virginia Stewart, Charlotte Anderson and Marion Smith of Aitkin visited in Crosby.

Miss Esther Haglund if Park Rapids is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krueger.

Miss Mildred Watts has recovered from sickness and resumed teaching school.

Mrs. J. P. Galles was operated on for goiter at Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. A E Lovdahl have returned from a two months' visit in Santa Anna, Calif

Mrs. William Peterson visited in Brainerd.

Miss Mabel Anderson is visiting in Minneapolis.

Miss Anna Lange visited friends in Aitkin.

IMMIGRATION TO COME UP FIRST

CONGRESS WILL FIND BIG PROGRAM OF WORK READY FOR IT AT EXTRA SESSION.

FOR PEACE WITH GERMANY

Knox Resolution Expected to Show Its Head Early in the Senate—Navy Appropriation Bill to Receive Early Consideration.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Congress knows pretty well what duties it will be expected to perform, and the order in which they must be taken up, when the extra session comes into being. In truth President Harding, in his inaugural address, gave some intimation of what he expects, although he did not go into specifications.

When the new congress assembles in April it probably will find waiting for it some definite plan concerning foreign relations. It is, of course, possible that the President and the secretary of state will not find enough time between now and the convening of congress to set forth definitely their views concerning the vexing question of our relations with the lands across the sea, but it is not believed that spring will be far advanced before plans are presented for action or rejection, although it can be taken for granted that, with the heavy Republican majority in both houses, no administration plan stands in much danger of disapproval.

The Knox resolution for immediate peace with Germany may show its head in the senate within a day or two after the next session begins, although now there is some thought of postponing it. The high hope of some of the senators is that the President will recommend the coupling up with the resolution of a paragraph which will give to France a new evidence of our friendship for that country. No one can tell, however, as to how this will be, because there has been strong opposition in congress to doing anything with the Knox resolution except to pass it in the briefest possible form, a form which shall include nothing except a bald statement that peace exists with Germany.

Harding Gave Warning.

In his inaugural address Mr. Harding said: "There is no instant step from disorder to order. We must face a condition of grim reality, charge off our losses and start afresh. It is the oldest lesson of civilization. I would like the government to do what it can to mitigate them. In understanding, in mutuality of interest, in concern for the common good, our tasks will be solved."

Every President in recent years on taking office has said something in his inaugural address to remove from the minds of certain kinds of people the thought that because an administration is changed instant relief from evil can be expected. Mr. Wilson said something of this kind when he came into office, and so did Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, and it may be that all the Presidents before their time had a like thought, and uttered a like note of warning.

It must be remembered that this is a Republican administration, Republican in the White House, Republican in both branches of congress and Republican in all the executive departments. Consequently the Republican party is to be held responsible for everything that is done or that is left undone. The President has been holding conferences with leaders of congress. Apparently the executive and the legislative branches want to make good, but it can be said without any animus whatsoever that some of the legislators, as has been the history of things ever since politics was, seem to want to make good in everything only if it can be done without injuring their chances of re-election.

Pass Immigration Bill.

The plan of the Republicans is for an immediate passing of the immigration bill which failed of passage at the last session. The President and a majority of the Republican senators and representatives apparently want to have this bill put through in just the form in which it was passed at the last session, but influences have been brought to bear on some of the members and senators, and it looks now as if the percentage rate of immigrants who are to be allowed to enter the country is to be raised. Congress at the last session fixed the immigration rate at 3 per cent of the persons of any one nationality now residing within the United States. Now it is being urged that the percentage be raised to 5 per cent, and there are some members of congress who would like to see it put up to a much higher point.

The immigration bill, however, will go through and it seems likely today that the only yielding that will come will be in the direction of raising of the rate of influx from 3 per cent to 5 per cent. At the 5 per cent rate about 400,000 immigrants will be admitted into the United States every year.

The navy appropriation bill failed of passage at the last session of congress. It will be taken up immediately on the reassembling of the lawmakers, and with its discussion will come a continuation of the debate on disarmament. The country is to hear a great deal more about the navy building program of Japan before congress finally acts on matters concerning our own fleets.

MAY RIVAL CHEMISE DRESS

Recently Created Garment of Paris Origin, Bids Fair to Find Favor With Milady.

Paul Poiret never made a better thing than the chemise dresses with which he startled Paris many years ago. Since that time, writes a Paris fashion correspondent, he has created many different models, but none has had the enduring vogue of the peasant chemise. This is no reflection on his resourcefulness and creative ability, but demonstrates that there are only a few ideas in the world which would have sufficient vitality to survive.

Recently there has appeared on the horizon of fashion another genre of dress, created and launched by Madeleine Vionnet, which bids fair to have the same vitality and endurance as the chemise dress. As Poiret gathered his ideas from the crudest form of peasant garb, Vionnet has drawn inspiration from the dress of the highly civilized Greek at the period of his most artistic development.

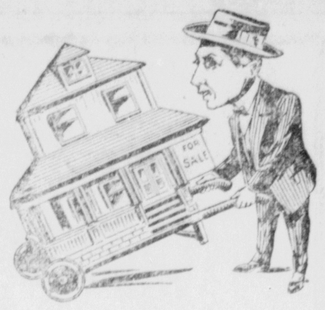

Just as M. Poiret, in adopting the crude single garment of the unlettered man of toil, embellished it, Vionnet has stripped the Grecian designs of all complications and presented them with a stern simplicity that holds only the faintest suggestion of their origin. While Poiret embellished, Vionnet simplified. He took simplicity and complicated it. She took complication and simplified it. He took the workaday blouse and made it acceptable to the modern woman of fashion. She took the complicated draperies of the effete Grecian civilization and wrought them into practical, sensible twentieth century dresses.

Again the Overblouse.

Blouses continue to be made to wear over the skirt, although many of them are greatly attenuated. Tiebacks, surplice effects of various kinds and peasant types continue in favor, the tucked blouse invariably being of more tailored type, or the lingerie type with its ever-popular cascaded frill at the front or side. Eyelet embroidery having registered for winter refuses to be ousted for spring, and among the lingerie types, which include many fine voiles, there are eyelet embroidery motifs to no end. A voile blouse may have a turn-down collar, a rounded bosom and cuffs of eyelet work, or for that matter the entire blouse may be fashioned of it, no matter what its color.

Said About Women.

"Man is the dry land, and woman, she is the sea. For whosoever diggeth in the earth, he findeth out the substance of it. But he that diggeth in the water is for ever fighting its contrariness."—From "The Book of Artemus." "If you describe a right woman in a laudable sense, she should have gentle softness, tender fear, and all those parts of life which distinguish her from the other sex."—Sir Richard Steele. "Last among the characteristics of woman is that sweet motherly love, with which nature has gifted her; it is almost independent of cold reason and wholly removed from all hope of reward."—Harder.

Mr. E. W. Meriwether, Guthrie, Ky., writes: "Marlix is just fine; it has done wonders for me; it is the only thing that gave me lasting relief after everything else had failed."

Mr. Robert Thompson, Rising Sun, Ind., writes: "I feel just fine since I took Marlix. I can eat anything now and have no misery whatever to suffer. I am 78 years old."

If you want to know once more what it means to feel a good healthy appetite and enjoy a hearty meal without suffering from headaches, bloating, sour acid stomach, gas belching, heart palpitation, nervousness and other symptoms of indigestion and dyspepsia, Then, listen! Get a bottle of concentrated liquid MARLIX today. Prepare and take it as directed. Then watch the result. Wonderful liquid MARLIX has put thousands of bad stomachs back to healthy condition, relieved thousands of sufferers. Let it relieve you. Know the real joy of good appetite and good digestion once again. MARLIX is only 75 cents and absolutely guaranteed by The Marlix Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., and druggists.

SUDDEN DEATH

Before an Insurance Company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test your water and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout, or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night—take heed, before too late!

You can readily overcome such conditions and prolong life by taking the advice of a famous physician, which is: "Drink plenty of pure water and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking 'An-uric,' in tablet form." It was the discovery of Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. If you cannot obtain it at your drug store send him 10 cents for trial package "Anuric." Ask for An-uric (anti-uric acid) Tablets.

Conventions Recognized

Strict observance of all of the recognized conventions has won for us the unstinted praise of those who believe in dignity without pomp and service without ostentation

Advertisers in the Daily Dispatch

Now get the same cut service as the big city dailies

We have made arrangements with the Murray Illustrated Advertising Company of New York, for the furnishing of cuts for advertising purposes absolutely free to our patrons. This service is the best in America and has as clients some of the largest newspapers published.

Never before has it been possible for a paper to furnish this service without a considerable added outlay on the part of the advertiser, and even now it is only offered to the paper recognized by advertisers and readers as the leader in its section.

The Dispatch buys the cuts; the advertiser pays for the space in the paper at the same rate as for other advertising. Many of our patrons have already taken advantage of this offer and others are invited to do so.

We will be glad to explain the matter more fully
